

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. It is so nice not to be receiving all of those unsolicited calls. Now I know that anyone calling is an important message I want to hear.